

GARDEN HOUSE

Eisler Landscapes designed and installed this entry garden and created a patio area underneath the existing porch. Foundation plantings enhance the front of the home and the walk from the driveway to the front door. The fenced in courtyard garden creates a traditional garden area for perennials. The patio area was created by re-grading the area under the deck and adding stone retaining walls. Shrubs and planting beds soften the area behind the deck.